

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.

Major General McClellan Commanding, &c. : General—Your report of yesterday giving the results of the battles of South Mountain and Antietam has been received and submitted to the President. It is a very hard fought battle, but well earned and decided victory.

The valor and endurance of your army in the several conflicts which terminated in the expulsion of the enemy from the loyal State of Maryland are creditable alike to the troops and to the officers who commanded them.

A grateful country, while mourning the lamented dead, will be unmindful of the honors due to the living.

(Signed) H. W. HALLKIN, Gen. in-Chief.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.

Jackson, the letter carrier recently arrested by the military authorities on his return from Richmond, charged with complicity with the rebels, has been released and restored to the performance of his duties by the Postmaster of this city.

Col. H. F. Sanders of the 19th Wis. Volunteers, having marched with a detachment of his regiment in April from Racine to Prairie du Chien without having his commissariat duly provided and secured, and having contracted for subsistence of his men at an extravagant price and without due regard to the interests of the government, has by direction of the President been dismissed from the service of the United States.

The military commission, of which Gen. Hunter is President, is understood to be investigating all circumstances attending the surrender of Harper's Ferry, and has summoned a large number of witnesses in the case.

Major A. Schwartz of the 2d Illinois Light Artillery is discharged from the service of the United States to enable him to accept the appointment of Chief of Artillery to Gen. Sigel's corps d'armes.

The Western gunboat fleet was yesterday officially transferred from the War to the Navy Department. Com. David Porter, late of the Mortar fleet, is to have the chief command.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.

Official information has been received here that the rebels under Van Dorn, Price and Lovell yesterday attacked our force at Corinth, but were repulsed with great slaughter, and retreated, leaving their dead and wounded on the field. Our forces are in full pursuit.

The following dispatch has been received at Headquarters:

JACKSON, Tenn., Oct. 6—3 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. Sherman: Yesterday the rebels under Generals Price, Van Dorn and Lovell were repulsed from their attacks on Corinth with great slaughter.

The enemy are in full retreat, leaving their dead and wounded on the field. Gen. Rosecrank telegraphs that the loss is serious on our side, particularly in officers, but bears no comparison with that of the enemy.

From 700 to 800 prisoners, besides the wounded are left on our hands.

Gen. Rosecrank pursued the enemy this a. m., and should they attempt to move towards Bolivar, will follow to that place.—Gen. Harbison is at the Hatchie river with 5,000 or 6,000 men, and is no doubt with the pursuing columns.

U. S. GRANT, Maj. Gen. Com.

A special dispatch says—Col. Hamilton of Texas is urged as military Governor of Texas, with Cassius M. May as Commander. The two go together with a battalion of soldiers and 50,000 armed citizens.

The expedition is to co-operate with Eli Tager's to Florida. Five hundred men have already offered themselves to Thayer, and a wealthy shipowner of New York proffers 3 first class steamers for the enterprise.

The Washington correspondent of the World says it is confidently reported here today that Gen. Lee's army is in full retreat.

All the accounts, in foreign journals, relative to European intervention in the American affairs are mere speculation as it is known that nothing upon that subject exists in definite or official form.

The Richmond papers of Saturday are received. The Examiner says Congress again indicates an adjournment coincident with the feeling of depression and gloominess in the public mind.

The general acquiescence in the executive management right or wrong has brought its bitter fruits. A close, vigilant and firm performance of congressional duties is as much demanded as in the management of the army.

A resolution has been adopted for the appointment of a committee of thirteen to take testimony relative to the outrages committed by the Yankees. The evidence is to be collected and preserved in a permanent and credible form in order that the truth of history may be vindicated, and the perpetrators of the outrages delivered to the just indignation of the present and future generations.

A joint resolution was adopted by the Virginia legislature providing that, no person within that state shall be tried or imprisoned for driving them from Louisiana, or for any means any person with or without arms who may be found on that soil aiding or abetting or in any other way giving effect to that state or its borders the lawless and fiendish proclamation of the President Lincoln to liberate the slaves.

The Dispatch of the 3d says the federal army is south of the Potomac moving up the valley from Martinsburg and a battle may be expected at any time.

The Whig says it is reported that 125 transports have gone up the Potomac to Alexandria supposed for the purpose of making another move on Richmond via Fredericksburg.

The Enquirer of the 4th says the federal army is at Martinsburg with their left extending to Harper's ferry.

Gen. Lee with a strong force is rapidly moving toward Martinsburg. A desperate fight is about to be fought. Gen. McClellan cannot avoid an engagement unless he retreats across the river. This he cannot do, as his Government and the abolitionists are urging him forward.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Huntington, has gone east for 2 or 3 weeks.

Gov. Andrew in urging upon the Government the importance of organizing the ambulance corps, and of making arrangements for the transportation of sick and wounded soldiers to their respective States.

He meets with encouraging words, which have not, however, as yet taken the shape of acts or orders.

CAIRO, Oct. 5.

We get no distinct account of today's battle at Corinth. On Saturday morning Gen. Price attacked Gen. Rosecrank's right, while Gen. Van Dorn and Ewell attacked his left. The assault was made with great determination. At one time our centre was penetrated and the rebels reached the Corinth Works near the centre of the town. They were met at the bayonet point. Gen. Van Dorn led his column over an abatis on the left up to within 50 yards of a ditch. They were exposed all the time to a scorching fire of grape and canister, and driven back by a charge of the 27th Ohio and the 11th Missouri.

The battle lasted till half past eleven, when the rebels began to retreat towards the Hatchie River. The number of killed and wounded on either side is not known.

The rebel loss is reported much larger than ours. They have taken between seven hundred and a thousand prisoners, not including the wounded.

Gen. Halleckman was killed and General Oglesby was dangerously wounded. Col. Smith, Gilbert and Morse are wounded. The Mobile and Ohio railroad is not seriously injured. The telegraph line has been repaired to Corinth.

Gen. Hulbert marched on Saturday to the south side of the Hatchie river with a large force, thus cutting off Price's retreat. Gen. Rosecrank moved early this morning to renew the attack. Cannonading was heard to-day in the direction of these forces. Price is in the forks of the Hatchie River, between Gens. Hulbert and Rosecrank.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 4.

M. C. Garber, Quartermaster in Gen. Morgan's division, telegraphs the following to the Major-General: "The 12th Vermont brigade of Gen. G. W. Morgan's command from Cumberland Gap arrived at Greensburg, Ky., on the 3d inst., after an exhausting march of sixteen days, having roads to make in many places. The men are shoeless, hatless, and naked, and for days were without rations. They had to gather subsistence from the corn standing in the fields, which they grated to make bread of after the fatigue of the day. The men bore the hardships and privations and the fatigues of the march with the greatest fidelity. They marched twenty hours a day, skirmishing in the woods on each side of the road, and repelling the attempts of the rebel cavalry in their front and rear to capture them. The enemy blockaded the way all along the march and at every suitable place harassed our column as much as possible. The force is in excellent condition, with a magnificent park of artillery consisting of 28 pieces, six of them being twenty-pounders. We had four hundred wagons, all of which we brought off safely. The works at Cumberland Gap were left in ruin. But four guns were left, and these with their trunnions knocked off.

As yet we can only state the general results of the fighting at Corinth. Skirmishing commenced on Tuesday last, and there has been more or less fighting every day since. The rebel loss is about 700 killed, and from 15,000 to 18,000 wounded. We have 1,500 prisoners at Corinth, and 300 on Hatchie river, and more constantly coming in. We have taken several thousand stand of arms thrown away by rebels in their flight.

Our loss is mostly new and of English make. Our loss is about 300 killed and 1,000 wounded. Many houses in the town are badly shattered by shot and shell. On Sunday Gen. Ord drove the enemy 5 miles over hills and through woods and valleys, the rebels taking advantage of every wood for their infantry, and every hill for their artillery.

The fight lasted 7 hours. The rebel Gen. Rogers was killed. Gen. Oglesby was wounded. Our loss is about 300 killed and 1,000 wounded. Prisoners taken say their effective force in this vicinity was 65,000. This is probably an overstatement, but it is certain they have outnumbered us 2 to 1.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 5.

The rebels began to fortify Frankfort, but they are now represented as evacuating it. But few of the enemy are found in that direction.

The rebels are reported to be 10,000 strong on the southern bank of the west fork of the river. They are fortifying their positions among the hills and receiving heavy reinforcements, some say as high as 30,000 men. Our advance occupies the northern bank of the river, and it is waiting to-day for the main body of the army to come up.

A fight is anticipated to-morrow, as the rebels swear they will not run any further, and our army intends to advance and give them battle.

Gen. Dumont of Indiana left for the field to-day.

Capt. Hearty of the 4th Indiana Cavalry says that the enemy claim 30,000 troops on the east fork of Salt river. A battle is certain on the morrow.

In the skirmishes to-day we had two men killed and ten wounded. The enemy's loss is about 100 killed and 500 wounded. They are coming in from the rebel lines.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 4.

It is said that Kirby Smith has arrived at Frankfort with 10,000 men, and Humphrey Marshall is on his way there with 5,000.—The rebels evidently mean to make a stand at Frankfort, and a battle at Bardonia seems imminent.

The report of an anticipated fight at Mount Washington yesterday arose from our forces shelling the woods as they advanced.

Bragg and Buckner left Danville for Lexington on Tuesday. Bragg was expected at Danville on Monday. He threatened to send every man who would not join the rebel army to the north of the Ohio. The rebels are cutting new roads from Bardonia to Springfield and Lexington.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 6.

From a private in the 6th Kansas cavalry, who participated in the fight at Newtonia on Monday last, Col. Johnson on Monday, learning that there was a rebel force, thought to be 500 strong, sent about 400 troops, 175 of whom were infantry and the balance cavalry, under command of a Major.

They charged into Newtonia on Tuesday morning, and found that the rebels had been heavily reinforced, having, it is estimated, about 700 men and 6 pieces of artillery, our men had to get out the best way they could, the infantry fighting them hand to hand for 3-4 of an hour.

Company H, of the 7th Kansas Cavalry 30 strong were surrounded, but cut their way out. Our troops fell back about 3 miles followed by the rebels, when the former met reinforcements numbering about 300 cavalry and 4 pieces of artillery, and in turn drove the rebels back into Newtonia. Cannonading was kept up for some time. At nightfall our troops commenced falling back to their camp. The rebels followed, when our men turned upon them and drove them back to Newtonia, and held the field. Our loss, during the day, was about 10 killed, wounded and missing. Most of them were probably taken prisoner. Those of our wounded who fell into their hands were treated in the most barbarous manner. The rebel loss is not known, but it is thought to be larger than ours in killed and wounded.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.

Advocate says that Gen. Schofield with a powerful army was at Saratoga on Saturday, 16 miles from Newtonia where the rebel force of 10,000 strong were collected. He expected to reach them to-day, and if the rebels do not retreat we may expect to hear immediately of a battle. No apprehension are entertained as to the result; our army being superior to that of the enemy and in excellent fighting trim.

The following is the official account by Gen. Beauregard of his assumption of the command of the Department of South Carolina and Georgia:

HEADQUARTERS DEPT. SOUTH CAROLINA, GEORGIA, CHARLESTON, Sept. 24, 1862.

I assume command of the department pursuant to paragraph XV., Special Orders No. 202, Adjutant and Inspector General's Office, Richmond, August 29, 1862.

All existing orders will remain in force until otherwise ordered.

In entering upon my duties, which may involve at an early day the defence of two of the most important cities in the Confederate States, against the most formidable efforts of our powerful enemy, I shall rely on the ardent patriotism, the intelligent and unconquerable spirit of the officers and men under my command, to sustain successfully, but to maintain our posts with credit to our country and to our own honor, and avoid irreparable disaster, it is essential that all shall yield implicit obedience to any orders emanating from superior authority.

Brigadier General Thomas Jordan is announced as Adjutant and Inspector General and Chief of Staff of the department.

Official—I, JORDAN, Chief of Staff & A. A. G.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 6.

The little daughter of E. S. Gennan was found in a Waddy swamp near here this morning, dead, with a pistol wound through her throat. The murderer is known, but is not yet arrested.

It is supposed that he took the child for the daughter of Gov. Curtin, who received several anonymous notes warning him of danger to his family.

The Governor by proclamation offers $1000 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the wretch who brutally violated and murdered the little girl Mary Elizabeth Gennan.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 5.—A. A. M.

The United States transport steamer Baltimore was wrecked this morning by a storm off the coast of Maryland. All the aboarded negroes in Eastern North Carolina, are now being seized by the rebel Secretary of War and carried into Virginia to work on fortifications.

Gov. Vance has called a council of the leading men of this State for the purpose of taking President Lincoln's recent proclamation into consideration.

The penalty for making, signing or issuing any instrument, document or paper of any kind, without the same having thereon a stamp to denote the tax, is fifty dollars, and such paper will be invalid and of no effect (Sec. 363).

The certification of checks, already duly stamped, will require no additional stamp for such certification.

The stamp tax upon protests should be added to the expenses thereof.

All dividends or coupons, payable prior to or on September 1, 1862, although paid after that day, are exempt from the operations of this law.

Checks dated, or payable ahead, are subject to taxation as promissory notes.

Stamps are not required upon documents made prior to October 1, 1862, excepting upon foreign bills of exchange, which must be stamped on acceptance.

The Committee recommend, as a simple and convenient method, that the three per cent tax required upon dividends and surplus profits be deducted from the dividends from their net earnings before the declaration of dividends. Dividends then declared would be free from tax. Three per cent, thus withheld must be paid to the United States within thirty days from the date on which such dividends are payable, under penalty of five hundred dollars for default. (Sec. 382.)

Stamps must be affixed to all documents by the party issuing the same, before presentation of a check, and all documents issued by a Bank must be stamped by it before delivery, as required by resolution unanimously passed at a meeting of Bank officers, Sept. 15.

Stamps, in amounts of $50 and over, can be obtained of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue as per schedule hereto annexed, for which a commission of not exceeding five per cent, shall be allowed.

All checks or drafts upon checks for payment of dividends or otherwise, and all written papers for facilitating the internal business of Banks, are exempt from tax.

Orders to pay dividends are not Powers of Attorney; but, like drafts at sight, are subject to the stamp of two cents.

Bills of Exchange, drawn in duplicate, must both be stamped.

Stamps may be canceled by an instrument made for the purpose of impressing the initials of the Bank or person thereon, to which the date must be added.

The omission to cancel the stamps on checks does not invalidate the checks, but subjects the maker to a fine of fifty dollars.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.

I have examined the foregoing memoranda, and am of opinion that the specifications made for the purpose of the Exercise Law, in all essential particulars.

GEORGE S. BOUTWELL, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

PARSON BROWNLOW ON THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION.

Parson Brownlow made a characteristic speech at the Michigan State Fair, on Thursday last. In the course of it he said:

Regarding Mr. Lincoln's proclamation I will say, that if he means to free the slaves of the rebels in arms, and put them on a footing of equality with the loyal people, I think the proclamation is a noble one. I think the proclamation is a noble one. I think the proclamation is a noble one.

Let us stand by our rights, and give them, and push the war with a vigor, and the rebellion will be put down. It is necessary I am willing to be a pirate to assist. I see no other way.

One of the enrolling marshals of a Philadelphia, the other day, received a threat from a young man named Storing, at the lady's house he found her before her door endeavoring to effect, with a vegetable basket, a 20 cent abatement in the price of a peck of tomatoes. "Have you any men here, ma'am?" The reply was gruff and curt—"No." "Have you no husband, ma'am?" "No." "A son, ma'am?" "No." "Perhaps you have a son, ma'am?" "Well, what of it?" "I'd like to know where he is." "Well, he's been here." "So I see, ma'am. Pray, where is he?" "In the Union army, where he ought to be." The marshal hastened round the corner.

REMARKABLE WOMEN.—A spinster once frightened a burglar from his work by putting forth a night-gown and a comb at the window and exclaiming: "Go away! I am not ashamed of myself!" So much for coolness.
